Is your Communications Center prepared to recognize and respond to any "In-Progress" event? What type of specialized training has your staff received regarding events like workplace violence, home invasion robberies, drive-by shootings, domestic violence events or robberies? This class will prepare your 9-1-1 professionals for these events.

This one-day course is action packed with call types that include: Workplace and Domestic Violence, Spillover Domestic Violence, Introduction to School Violence, Active Assailant, Vehicle Pursuits, Home Invasion, Business Robberies, and many more.

Topics Included:

- Recognizing the profile of a potentially aggressive workplace violence suspect.
- The Dispatchers tactical role and response to an "active shooter event".
- Proper handling of missing or abducted child calls.
- Great reminders of citizen and responder safety during domestic and family violence events.
- Pre-planning strategies for handling in-progress events.

Non-Member Tuition: FREE. Non-Member tuition shall apply to civilians, officers from State/Federal agencies, and officers from Local Law Enforcement agencies which are not a member of any MTU. Tuition will be invoiced to departments upon course completion. If a pre-registered student from a Non-Member agency fails to attend training, and the agency fails to provide advance notice within 7 days of the start date of that class, the agency will be invoiced the entire amount of the student's tuition.

To Register: See 1st page of flyer.

If it is not a mandated course, all MTU# 10 local members will be given registration preference until seven days prior to the date of class. After that date, registrations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis, regardless of MTU status. We cannot accept registrations from individual officers. All registrations must go through your Chief, Sheriff, or department training office, even if you are attending class on your own time.

Cancellation: If a class must be canceled for any reason, every effort will be made to do so at least 2 weeks before the class is scheduled to begin. However, there are circumstances where last minute cancellation is out of our control. All officers who have been registered for training will be contacted at the email address given at registration, so please be sure to provide an email address which is checked often.
