COURSE DESCRIPTION: Close Quarter Combative Pistol involves defensive shooting fundamentals which centers on enhancing the student's tactical pistol proficiency and involves both sighted and unsighted fire. The first day focuses on working with the body's natural reactions to a threat, movement (getting off the "X"), and proper grip and stance. Day two involves shooting from a variety of positions to include barricade, kneeling, prone, supine, and while moving forwards, backwards, and laterally. Students will shoot one-handed (strong and support side) and will also be required to clear various malfunctions. All training and related drills will prepare students for defensive firearms use during a dynamic critical encounter.

STUDENT EQUIPMENT LIST:

- Service Pistol
- 3 Magazines (minimum; more is better)
- 1000 rounds of pistol ammunition
- Eye and Ear Protection
- Duty gear (holster, mag pouches, ect.)
- Vest as worn on-duty (concealed or external)
- Range appropriate attire
- This course requires movement (walking to sprinting). Students will shoot from several positions (standing, kneeling, sitting, prone and supine)
