This Course is ILETSB Approved and Certified for the Following Mandates: Civil Rights(1.00hrs), Const. Use of L.E. Authority(1.00hrs), Procedural Justice(6.50hrs) and Lead Homicide Investigator(16.00hrs)

Course Description: Policing In a Digital World is an investigative class for all levels of law enforcement. The course focuses on utilizing the most up-to-date investigative techniques, combining law enforcement tools with open-source media, and social media. Students are provided with real case study of successful prosecution of suspects where instructor, Ben Sullivan, was the case agent. Students will have the opportunity to learn how to build and utilize social media in addition to other tools to rapidly investigate a smaller investigation and then rapidly grow it into larger types of investigations if desired. Students will then be taught how to collect evidence, write reports, and author search warrant affidavits. Students will be provided with templates and examples for all these topics.

Non-Member Tuition: $160.00 for non-member agencies will be invoiced to the departments upon course completion. If a pre-registered student from a Non-Member agency fails to attend training, and the agency fails to provide advance notice within 7 days of the start date of that class, the agency will be invoiced the entire amount of the student's tuition.

To Register: Email Registration to Register@letac.org or, log in to our website www.letac.org. If you do not have an account, please create one to make the registration process easier. MTU #10 members WILL BE given preference up to two weeks prior to the scheduled class. Once the two weeks are up, registration will be based on a first come, first served basis. Also, we cannot accept registrations from individual officers. YOU MUST go through your Chief, Sheriff, or department training office, even if you are attending class on your own time.

Cancellation: If a class must be canceled for any reason, every effort will be made to do so at least 2 weeks before the class is scheduled to begin. However, there are circumstances where last minute cancellation is out of our control. All officers who have been registered for training will be contacted at the email address given at registration, so please be sure to provide an email address which is checked often.
