COURSE OVERVIEW: Officers read & evaluate several reports in class. Realizing agencies are hiring lateral officers whose literacy skills are lacking. This course will cover the three cores of how to write a strong LE narrative from note-taking, review of body & dash cam tapes, composing the rough draft, to final copy proofed & edited.

COURSE GOALS: The course includes a 4-hour block on good writing skills, addressing grammar issues that cause confusion, contradictions, & misrepresentations in police reports. The block covers coherent paragraphs with clear transitions, sentence types & structures, 8 parts of speech, & punctuation marks. It clarifies confusing pronouns, ambiguous police jargon, & how the passive voice of the verb breaks the evidence chain of custody. It clarifies what to quote & how to do it. Everything is wholly tied to Police Report writing.

Attendees should bring 2 samples of well-written agency reports: one report should be a crime against property, the other a crime against person(s).

You may also fill out and submit our online registration form through the website at www.letac.org or call 217-726-7014 to register by phone. MTU #10 member agencies will be given registration preference until seven days prior to the date of class.
